On February 5, to the 6, 2019, I called 911 for help due to a domestic problem between me and my common law-wife to where I became the victim twice due to the five listed Dayton Police that arrive to my house started shooting at me and my children while I was holding my younger son in my arms claiming I fired at them with a AR-15, knowing I did not at no time have a gun as they claim as it shown from the search of my residence that <sup>they</sup> destroyed along with the video surveillance cameras and system they destroyed to keep me from proving my innocent that they did not inventory into their police property as on the search warrant. Since my incarceration in the county jail I have been harass and refuse my blood presser medication and, tried to force me to take mental health medication and, place in a mental health hospital in order to justify to police wrong doing knowing I have no mental illness as was claim.
